

The Grimani Bastion

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Friday, 30 November 2012 17:41

The bastion, named after the Venetian commander, Francesco Grimani, was built in the north-east

Construction began in 1702 was completed in 1706 , as part of the reconstruction

The Grimani or San Antonio Bastion positions protected the Acronaupia the narrow road which led

The bastion is four-sided and the lower part has so-called wattle style. The bastion at the higher level has

On the north and east walls, the trade mark of Venetian fortifications stand out of Venice, the symbol of t

The Grimani Bastion

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Friday, 30 November 2012 17:41

The bastion location of the Bastion in the center of the park the Land Gate

The Grimani Bastion

Written by Administrator

Monday, 31 January 2011 10:29 - Last Updated Friday, 30 November 2012 17:41

